WHAT IS RUSU?

RUSU is the RMIT University Student Union

We are RMIT's only 100% student-run organisation – run by annually elected student representatives for you.

RUSU has many student run departments including: Events, Student Rights, Clubs & Societies, Welfare, Education, Postgrad, Queer, Women, Sustainability, Indigenous, Disability and Carers, RMITV & Catalyst.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

There are many reasons why you may need to access the RUSU Student Rights service...

- Are accused of plagiarism
- Have been recommended for Exclusion
- Are being discriminated against at RMIT
- Have a complaint which is being ignored or dismissed as 'not important'
- Have been denied Special Consideration
- Have an enrollment or fees issue
- Have been identified as 'At Risk'

If you think your student rights are being breached or if you would like to seek support, contact our free, confidential Student's Rights service.

COMPASS DROP-IN CENTRE

Compass is an information and referrals service for students experiencing life difficulties.

Compass can help students with...

- homelessness or risk of homelessness
- Centrelink, employment and financial issues
- rental or landlord issues
- mental health
- domestic, family relationship violence
- religious and ethnic intolerance
- alcohol and other substance use
- access to the Compass Cupboard food bank

REALFOODS

Realfoods is a student-volunteer-run café serving ethical, locally sourced, fair trade, organic meals, snacks & drinks.

Realfoods provides hands-on hospitality and customer service experience to RMIT students via the volunteer program as well as employing students.
