SECTION 1 STANDING ORDERS/MEETING PROCEDURES

Section 1.1 Conduct of Meetings

- 1.1.1 These Regulations are the standing orders and rules of debate for the conduct of meetings of the SUC of the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, and for the order of its Office Bearers, Committees and affiliated bodies.
- 1.1.2 The Agenda of the Council shall be determined by the SUC General Secretary in consultation with the SUC President.
- 1.1.3 Apologies shall be given in writing to the General Secretary before a SUC meeting and shall give sufficient reason to warrant being excused. The Chairperson may at their discretion accept verbal apologies.
- 1.1.4 Any duly convened Special Meeting shall deal only with the business arising out of the objects set forth in the notices convening the Special Meeting.
- 1.1.5 Unless otherwise stated in the Agenda, meetings of the Council shall be convened at 6.00pm.
- 1.1.6 The General Secretary shall call a ten (10) minute adjournment at least once in every continuous two (2) hour sitting of the Council. Four (4) hours after the appointed starting time of the meeting, if there is still business before the Council, the General Secretary shall put the following procedural motion without debate. The motion shall be won or lost by a simple majority of the Council members that vote. "That this meeting remains convened in order to deal with the business remaining on the agenda." If the motion is lost the General Secretary shall close the meeting immediately. If won, the motion shall be put again at thirty (30) minute intervals. No new business shall be added to the agenda after the above procedural motion has first been put and carried. Notwithstanding the above sentence no new business shall be added to the agenda after the commencement of the agenda item "General Business".
- 1.1.7 The RMIT University Student Union Council, where practicable, will conduct two SUC meetings per year at both Brunswick and Bundoora campuses. Bundoora meeting locations will be up to the discretion of the General Secretary to determine whether the meetings be held at Bundoora West or East.

Section 1.2 Quorum

Pursuant to Section 6.2.3 of the SUC Constitution the quorum of an ordinary SUC meeting shall be:

- 1.2.1 One half (1/2) plus one (1) of the total number of voting members of the SUC; and
- 1.2.2 If the quorum for a SUC meeting is not in attendance thirty (30) minutes after the specified time, then such a meeting shall be not held, and the business for such meeting shall be placed on the agenda for the next SUC meeting.
- 1.2.3 If the quorum at any SUC meeting lapses, the General Secretary shall close the meeting, and notwithstanding that subsequently a quorum shall reappear, the meeting shall remain closed.

Section 1.3 Agenda

- 1.3.1 Each meeting of the SUC must include the following items on the agenda:
 - a. attendance
 - b. apologies
 - c. observers
 - d. proxies
 - e. consideration and business arising from previous meeting minutes
 - f. starring and double starring of items. Starred items are for discussion, double starred items are for earlier consideration on the agenda, and unstarred items are for noting. Any member may request an item to be starred or double starred.
 - g. financial reports as per article 4.2.1 of these regulations
 - h. a written report of no less than fifty (50) words from each voting member of the student union council shall be included for noting at each ordinary meeting of the student union council, unless starred.
 - i. Motions.

j. other business

- 1.3.2 The General Secretary shall call for agenda items ten (10) working days prior to the meeting. Items to be included on the agenda must be submitted to the General Secretary seven (7) calendar days prior to the meeting. This includes 1.3.1.j. Agenda items shall be numbered and placed before the meeting in the order in which they have been received by the Secretary. Emergency items may be included for consideration at the meeting, and shall be introduced under other business. For items to be considered emergency items, they shall have information that is time sensitive and not have been available when the call for agenda items was made. The General Secretary shall determine if items are emergency items or can be included on the next SUC meeting agenda.
- 1.3.3 The agenda shall be distributed to all members seven (7) calendar days prior to the meeting. It shall also be posted on SUC noticeboards

Section 1.4: Rules of Debate - Powers & Duties of the General Secretary

- 1.4.1 Pursuant to 5.1.2 of the Constitution, the General Secretary shall be elected as the general secretary and shall chair all meetings of the SUC.
- 1.4.2 The General Secretary shall be heard in silence and without interruption; when they rise during debate, all discussion shall cease.
- 1.4.3 If the General Secretary wishes to enter into debate they shall vacate the Chair and call upon another member of the SUC to act as General Secretary.
- 1.4.4 Any member desiring to speak shall address their remarks to the General Secretary in restrained and courteous language, such remarks being relevant to the subject under consideration.
- 1.4.5 When two (2) or more members indicate their desire to speak, the General Secretary shall call upon the member who, in their opinion, first indicated their intention.
- 1.4.6 The General Secretary shall maintain order and may at any time eject a member for misbehaving, or adjourn a meeting which in their opinion has become disorderly.
- 1.4.7 The General Secretary shall reject any motion which is not in accordance with the aims and objectives, Constitution, Regulations or Standing Orders of the SUC.
- 1.4.8 The General Secretary shall interpret matters which are not dealt with in the Standing Orders or Rules of Debate.
- 1.4.8.1 If any member:
- (a) persistently and wilfully obstructs the business of the Council;
 - (b) is guilty of disorderly conduct;
 - (c) uses objectionable words and refuses to withdraw such words;
 - (d) persistently and wilfully refuses to conform to Regulation 1 or any parts thereof; or
 - (e) persistently and wilfully disregards the authority of the Chair, they may be named by the General Secretary.
- 1.4.8.2 When any member is named they shall be called upon to stand up in their place and make any explanation or apology they may think fit, and afterwards a motion may be moved - "That such a member be suspended from the service of the Council." No amendment, adjournment or debate shall be allowed on such motion, which shall immediately be put by the General Secretary.
- 1.4.8.3 If any member be suspended, their suspension shall be for the remainder of that day's sitting.
- 1.4.8.4 When a member has been suspended they shall withdraw from the table and thereafter, during their period of suspension, be deemed absent from the meeting. Such member shall be deemed to be present for the purpose only of including them in the numbers constituting a quorum.
- 1.4.9 The general secretary may be removed as chair if two-thirds (2/3) majority of the SUC vote to do so.
- 1.4.10 The President shall act pro-tem should the General Secretary position become vacant and solely for the purpose of calling a special meeting to elect an interim General Secretary from the members of the SUC and by two-thirds (2/3) majority of the SUC. Seven calendar days notice of the meeting shall be provided. Notice shall include the time, location and stated purpose of electing an interim General Secretary. No other business may proceed until the position has been filled.

Section 1.5: Rules of Debate - Motions

- 1.5.1 All business shall proceed by way of motion which is affirmative in character. If the General Secretary requests any motion shall be put in writing and handed to them, provided that this shall not apply to procedural motions.
- 1.5.2 Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, any member may move to end debate by stating "That the motion now be put", if the motion is duly seconded, the General Secretary shall then ask the members to vote to end debate. If carried, the motion or amendment before the meeting shall be put forthwith, without debate or amendment; if lost the debate shall proceed. Such a motion shall not be moved while a member is speaking.
- 1.5.4 No person shall interrupt another whilst they are speaking except on a point of order or in order to move that the speaker be no longer heard.
- 1.5.5 Questions shall not be accepted by the General Secretary at any time if a motion has been put.
- 1.5.6 At any time a member may move "That strict order of debate be followed." Such motion duly seconded, shall be put to the vote forthwith without debate; if carried, thereafter no member shall, without the permission of the General Secretary, speak more than once to each motion or amendment under discussion. The mover of the motion or amendment shall have the right of reply. The strict order of debate shall proceed once per motion, including amendments. The mover may speak on the introduction of their motion, and has the right to reply. Right of reply shall be allowed to the mover of a substantive amendment and once exercised all discussion on the amendment shall cease.
- 1.5.7 At any time during the debate, the chair may state, "This is now a formal debate". Which shall be in effect for the next ten minutes. Each member is entitled to ask one question to either the mover or seconder of the motion or amendment, and the responses should be either yes or no. At the end of the ten minutes, the question shall be called and proceed to a vote. If 2/3 of the voting members abstain from voting the motion shall be carried forward to the next secretariat meeting.
- 1.5.8 Except as hereinafter provided, any ruling of the General Secretary may be challenged by a motion "That the Council dissents from the Chairs' ruling." On such a motion proposed and seconded, the General Secretary shall vacate the Chair. The mover of such a motion shall have the right to speak thereto and the General Secretary to reply. Then the motion shall be put forthwith to the council who will vote on in the motion that "That the General Secretary's ruling be upheld". Once the decision is voted on, chair is reinstated.
- 1.5.9 A motion shall be superseded and lapse by a motion "That Council proceed to the next business" being resolved in the affirmative. The General Secretary at His/her discretion may put such motion without debate.
- 1.5.10 Any person during the debate may raise a point of order, which must be seeking clarification in regard to the proceedings. The speaker called to order shall cease speaking until the point of order is decided, by the chair. The person raising the point of order shall state it concisely. Then the General Secretary, without further discussion, shall give his/her ruling. The General Secretary's ruling on a point of order is final. A point of order may be taken with regard to any irregularity in the proceedings but an explanation or contradiction is not a point of order, and is out of order.
- 1.5.11 Explanations may be accepted at the discretion of the General Secretary.
- 1.5.12 Any SUC member may move at any time "That the meeting proceed in camera." Such a motion, duly seconded, shall be put without further debate, and if carried, no minutes shall be taken nor shall the business be discussed outside the meeting. On such a motion being resolved in the affirmative, the General Secretary shall have the power to exclude non-SUC members as they think fit.
- 1.5.13 A visitor may be given speaking rights applying only to a particular topic provided a motion proposing such is passed by the meeting.

Section 1.6: Rules of Debate - Amendments of Motions

- 1.6.1 A motion may be amended or withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the seconder; a motion may be withdrawn by the mover without the consent of the seconder provided that the seconder shall have a primary option to move the motion as originally drafted.

- 1.6.2 Any member proposing an amendment may be required to forward it in writing to the General Secretary. Any motion or amendment not seconded shall not be further debated and shall lapse.
- 1.6.3 The motion or amendment under discussion may be amended by the deletion, substitution or addition of words, provided that no amendment shall be accepted by the General Secretary which directly negates the motion or amendment under discussion. While an amendment is under discussion, it shall be voted on or removed prior to additional amendments being put forward.
- 1.6.4 Order of Action
 - (a) Amendments
 - (b) Substantive/Amendments
 - (c) Foreshadowed
 then
 - (d) Substantive/Motions
 - (e) Foreshadowed/Motions
- 1.6.5 Providing that foreshadowed amendments and motions have not lapsed due to the substantive motion being resolved in the affirmative, remaining foreshadowed business shall be dealt with in the order it is accepted by the General Secretary.

Section 1.7: Rules of Debate - Recommittal of Motions

- 1.7.1 Matters decided shall not be again considered within a period of two (2) months unless the SUC receives notice of recommittal containing a motion signed by at least two (2) SUC members. Any motion twice rejected by the council within a period of two (2) months shall not be discussed again for a period of three (3) months from the date of the last rejection.
- 1.7.2 Notice of recommittal shall enable the person giving such notice to move any motion relative to the recommitted motion at the time for which notice was given. They shall not be compelled to move the recommitted motion.
- 1.7.3 After notice of recommittal has been received at a meeting the General Secretary shall rule as to whether or not, in the best interests of the Student Union, action should proceed upon a motion that was carried before the time of the recommittal.
- 1.7.4 After notice of recommittal has been received from a member at a time other than at a meeting, the Secretariat shall rule as to whether or not, in the best interests of the Student Union, action should proceed upon a motion that was carried before the time of the recommittal.

Section 1.8: Rules of Debate - General

- 1.8.1 Motions with notice must be submitted in writing for inclusion under 1.3.1.i in the Agenda and shall be submitted to the General Secretary seven (7) days before the meeting. Such motions on notice shall be numbered and placed before the meeting in the order in which they have been received by the Secretary.

Section 1.9: Voting

- 1.9.1 At their discretion, the General Secretary may order a recount of votes and in any case shall do so at the request of any two (2) members of Council, providing that not more than two (2) recounts shall be taken unless a motion of the SUC so directs.
- 1.9.2 Save as otherwise provided in the Constitution of the SUC, at any meeting each elected SUC representative shall be entitled to exercise one (1) vote.
- 1.9.3 The General Secretary shall have a casting vote in addition to their representative vote provided that they exercise the right to vote before the count is taken.
- 1.9.4 Ex-officio members have the right to move or second a motion, speak to it, but not to vote on it.

- Section 1.10: Proxies
- 1.10.1 A member may appoint another SUC member as defined in 5.1 of the Student Union Constitution to attend the meeting and vote instead of that member.
- 1.10.2 A proxy must be given in writing to the General Secretary twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the meeting.
- 1.10.2.1 Proxies may be given from members who shall be:
- (a) absent from a meeting; or
- (b) who expect to be absent at the time when the motion is put.
- 1.10.2.2 In respect of motions of which notice has been given or foreshadowed motions by a person:
- (a) who is present at the time when notice is given, or the motion is foreshadowed; but
- (b) who expects to be absent when the motion is put.
- Section 1.11: Suspension of Standing Orders
- 1.11.1 Standing Orders or Rules of Debate may be suspended provided that such motion shall have the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting members of the SUC.
- Section 1.12: Validity of Voting
- 1.12.1 Objections of non-compliance with these Regulations, must be made prior to the termination of the next meeting and no motion, amendment, resolution passed, decision made or action taken at a properly convened and constituted meeting of the SUC shall be deemed invalid.
- Section 1.13: Circulation of these Regulations
- 1.13.1 A full copy of these Regulations shall be circulated by the General Secretary of the SUC to all members of the SUC, and to other affiliated bodies.
- Section 1.14: Matters Not Dealt With
- 1.14.1 Any matters not dealt with in the above standing orders shall be ruled on by the Chair.
- Section 1.15: Timely Reporting
- 1.15.1 Reports pursuant to 1.3.1.h of these Regulations shall be submitted to the General Secretary as agenda items pursuant to 1.3.2 of these Regulations.
- 1.15.2 Any member of the SUC who fails to appropriately submit such a report without prior leave of the SUC shall be required to submit and present such a report and an apology to the next ordinary meeting of the SUC.
- 1.15.2.1 A motion shall then be put "that the student union council accepts the apology of the member". If the motion is unsuccessful, and where the member receives an honorarium for their position, a motion shall then be put "that one fortnight's payment of the member's honorarium be withheld". If the motion is successful, the General Secretary or President shall arrange appropriate adjustment of payment due to the member, providing the pay period falls after the appeal period has expired.
- 1.15.2.2 If the member is absent from an SUC meeting that determines to withhold their honorarium, the General Secretary shall immediately notify the member of the decision and their right to appeal.
- 1.15.2.3 The member shall have the right to appeal the decision at the next ordinary meeting of the SUC. Such an appeal must be submitted within seven (7) days of the decision and shall only be heard once. Honorarium shall not be withheld until after such an appeal has been heard by the next ordinary meeting of the SUC.
- 1.15.3 Where a member is aware of their likely inability to submit a report to the next ordinary meeting of the SUC, they may submit a request to the SUC for prior leave of this duty for up to one (1) meeting. Such leave shall be granted at the discretion of the SUC.

 - (viii) Refer the matter to the SUC Appeals Committee

- 6.16.4 In case of any dispute regarding Election Regulations, procedures or conduct of Candidates/Campaigners, the Returning Officer shall be the arbiter. Further appeal may be made to the SUC Appeals Committee.
- 6.16.5 In the event that a Candidate lodges an appeal against a decision of the Returning Officer, the Returning Officer must call a meeting of the SUC Appeals Committee within twenty four (24) hours and that meeting must take place within forty eight (48) hours of the complaint being lodged.

Section 6.17 SUC appeals committee

6.17.1 Membership and appointment

- 6.17.1.1 There shall be a SUC Appeals Committee
- 6.17.1.2 The SUC Appeals Committee shall consist of three (3) members appointed by the SUC.
- 6.17.1.3 At least one of the members of the SUC Appeals Committee shall have legal qualifications.
- 6.17.1.4 Members are prohibited from having been an enrolled student at RMIT for a period of two (2) years preceding their appointment. Members may also not have been a candidate in an RMIT Student Union election in the last five (5) years.
- 6.17.1.5 The SUC Appeals Committee shall be appointed for the following year by the SUC once the declaration of the poll has occurred. In the event of a vacancy subsequent to this appointment the SUC shall appoint a member to the Committee.
- 6.17.1.6 Each member remains a member of the SUC Appeals Committee until he or she
 - a) Resigns
 - b) Becomes unable to act
 - c) Or is removed by the SUC.
- 6.17.1.7 Members of the SUC Appeals Committee may not be removed during the election period

6.17.2 Powers and duties

- 6.17.2.1 The SUC Appeals Committee shall hear appeals and determine disputes under the Regulations and Constitution of the SU. Subject to the RMIT Student Union Constitution and Regulations the SUC Appeals Committee may regulate proceedings as they see fit.
- 6.17.2.2 Any candidate may make an appeal to the SUC Appeals Committee, under the terms of section 6.16.1 Disputes of these Regulations
- 6.17.2.3 If the SUC Appeals Committee finds that a Candidate has committed improper practices the election of a successful Candidate may be declared void.
- 6.17.2.4 No finding by the SUC Appeals Committee shall bar or prejudice any action by the Disciplinary Committee of the University for any illegal or improper practice or offence against disregard of non-compliance with the Election Regulations.
- 6.17.2.5 The SUC Appeals Committee shall not declare that any person returned as elected was not duly elected, or declare any Election void:
 - (a) On the grounds of any illegal or improper practice or offence against, disregard of or non-compliance with the Election Regulations by any person other than the Candidate and without his/her knowledge or authority; or
 - (b) On the grounds specified in Sub-Clause hereof unless the SUC Appeals Committee is satisfied that the result of the Election was likely to be affected, and that it is just and equitable either that the Candidate should be declared not to be duly elected or that the Election should be declared void.

6.17.3 Process

- 6.17.3.1 In the event that a Candidate lodges an appeal against a decision of the Returning Officer, the Returning Officer must call a meeting of the SUC Appeals Committee within twenty four (24) hours and that meeting must take place within forty eight (48) hours of the complaint being lodged. However a meeting that occurs after this time may still rule on a complaint.

- 6.17.3.2 The SUC Appeals Committee may meet by telephone if necessary.
- 6.17.3.3 Meetings of the SUC Appeals Committee shall be in camera
- 6.17.3.4 Decisions of the SUC Appeals Committee must be made by at least two members of the Committee.
- 6.17.3.5 Candidates shall be entitled to appear before the SUC Appeals Committee to present their case, and are entitled to be assisted by one other RMIT student. No further representation or assistance shall be allowed unless the Appeals Committee decides that without representation the candidate will be unable to fairly put their case.
- 6.17.3.6 The SUC Appeals Committee must decide questions of fact on the balance of probabilities
- 6.17.3.7 Proceedings of the SUC Appeals Committee, other than its formal decisions, are confidential and may not be reported. Decisions of the SUC Appeals Committee shall be written and posted by the Returning Officer in the form of Official Publicity within 24 hours of a decision being made. Such decisions shall set out the facts. Where this is an outcome of a probity checks appeal the Student Union Council must be informed of the decision in place of the Returning Officer.
- 6.17.3.8 Decisions of the SUC Appeals Committee are final and binding. Refusal to obey or implement a decision of the SUC Appeals Committee shall result in immediate disciplinary action.

Section 6.18 Forbidden Practices

- 6.18.1 No Candidate or Candidate's representative shall in any manner whatsoever alter, deface damage, interfere with or remove any election material which belongs to another Candidate. Any person found so doing may be barred from any further participation in the Election (with the exception of actually voting).
- 6.18.2 In addition to these Regulations, Candidates advertising shall be restricted only by normal University Regulations.
- 6.18.3 No person shall cause damage or defacement to any public or private property inside or outside the University for the promotion of any Candidate(s) in any election of the Student Union Council. For the purpose of this section, damage or defacement shall be taken to include stickers and posters and chalking that cannot be removed with water on the inside or outside of buildings, steps, handrails, footpaths, trees, poles, bins, signs or any part of the University and its surrounds not specifically set aside for such purposes.
- 6.18.4 No candidate nor candidate's assistant shall publish, print, publicise or disseminate any electoral material without the authorisation of the Returning Officer.
- 6.18.5
 - (a) A person shall not engage in any dishonest practice in relation to an election.
 - (b) A person shall not in relation to an election, print, publish, verbalise or distribute, or cause, permit or authorise to be printed, published or distributed, any matter or thing containing a statement:
 - (i) that is untrue; or
 - (ii) that is, or is likely to be, misleading or deceptive;
 - (iii) that is discriminatory, sexist, racist, homophobic, militaristic or,
 - (iv) that contravenes SUC policy.
 - (c) A person shall not make or publish any false statement in relation to the personal character or conduct of a Candidate.
 - (d) A person shall not:
 - (i) vote more than once in the same election; or
 - (ii) record a vote to which they are not entitled.
 - (e) A person shall not interfere with any ballot paper without the consent of the Returning Officer.

- (f) A person shall not hinder the Returning Officer, Deputy Returning Officer, Poll Clerk or any other person appointed to assist the Returning Officer in the execution of his or her duties.
- (g) A person shall not engage in behaviour that is intimidatory, aggressive, threatening or harassing towards any other person(s).
- (h) No candidate may offer bribes or incentives to influence the decision of any student to vote, to not vote or how they may vote. For the purposes of this clause campaign materials such as t-shirts or badges are not incentives, but food, gifts or knick-knacks are.
- (i) No candidate may pay another person in cash or kind to campaign in the election. For the purposes of this clause the reasonable provision energy foods, non-alcoholic drinks and campaign t-shirts are not considered incentives.

- 6.18.6 Should it be proved that any Candidate or Candidate's representative has breached any of these, then that Candidate shall be subject to disciplinary action (as per sections 6.16.3 and/or 6.19 of these regulations).
- 6.18.7 No person shall display any poster, distribute leaflets or solicit votes within an area designated by the Returning Officer, of a polling booth or impede without just cause the conduct of the election.
- 6.18.8 No candidate nor candidate's assistant shall make use of resources of the SUC, RMIT Union, or RMIT University without the prior approval of the Returning Officer
- 6.18.9 No candidate shall distribute or broadcast any material in relation to the election without the prior authorisation of the Returning Officer.

Section 6.19 Discipline

- 6.19.1 Any Candidate who knows of and consents to or commits or aids or abets a breach of this section shall be liable to be disqualified from the election and from any further election to any position on or any office of the SUC for a period of eighteen (18) months following such breach.
- 6.19.2 Any person who commits or aids or abets such a breach shall be liable to be disqualified from any election to any position or any office of the SUC for a period of eighteen (18) months following such a breach.

Section 6.20 Defamation

The Student Union does not indemnify any student for defamation in an election.

Section 6.21 Indemnity

The Student Union Council shall indemnify the Returning Officers and appointees in relation to any action as a result of performing their duties in accordance with the RMIT Student Union Constitution and these regulations.

E-mail "bombing"	is characterised by abusers repeatedly sending an identical e-mail message to a particular address.
E-mail "spamming"	is a variant of bombing; it refers to sending e-mail to hundreds or thousands of users (or to lists that expand to that many users). Email spamming can be made worse if recipients reply to the email, causing all the original addressees to receive the reply. It may also occur innocently, as a result of sending a message to mailing lists and not realising that the list explodes to thousands of users, or as a result of an incorrectly set-up responder message.
E-mail "spoofing"	E-mail bombing/spamming may be combined with e-mail "spoofing" (which alters the identity of the account sending the e-mail), making it more difficult to determine who the e-mail is actually coming from.
First day of an election:	Refers to the first day of voting
NUS:	National Union Of Students
Polling:	Refers to the period in which official voting is taking place.
Publications of the Student Union:	Any material produced or disseminated through Student Union channels. This includes all forms of broadcasting, printing and production.
Receipt:	Upon physical acceptance of the material by the Returning Officer.
RO:	Returning Officer
Secretariat:	Means the Student Union Council secretariat as defined in section 8 of the RMIT Student Union Constitution\
Standard Election Period	Means the annual elections for all positions held in the period defined by section 11.1.2 of the Constitution.

APPENDIX 1 GRANT SCHEDULE – AFFILIATED CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

Definitions

- Affiliate Clubs and Societies as defined by SUC Regulations are herein referred to as 'clubs'.
- The Student Union Council or its Secretariat as defined by the RUSU Constitution is herein referred to as the 'governing body'.

1. Classification of Clubs

- 1.1. Clubs shall be classified as either large or small clubs:
 - 1.1.1. A large club shall have a demonstrated membership of thirty-five (35) or more currently enrolled RMIT student members;
 - 1.1.2. A small club shall have a demonstrated membership of between ten (10) and thirty-four (34) currently enrolled RMIT student members.
- 1.2. Demonstration of club size for classification shall be by presentation of the current club membership list at the time of annual full affiliation. This list must include the full name, student number, and signature of each member, and can not include any form of automatic membership or automatic membership renewal.
 - 1.2.1. While clubs may have RMIT staff or non-RMIT student members in accordance with SUC Regulations, these members shall not be included as members for the purposes of club classification.
- 1.3. Failure or inability of a club to present a valid membership list shall result in the club being deemed a small club.
- 1.4. Clubs may request a review of their classification up to twice annually.

2. Rules for Funds

- 2.1. Funds derived from Student Services and Amenities Fees must be spent in accordance with the Higher Education Legislation Amendment (Student Services and Amenities) Act 2011, or relevant Act, and may not be used to support political parties, or to support the election of a person to a Commonwealth or State or Territory Parliament or Local Government body.
- 2.2. Funds received may not be used to directly fund a charitable or external body activity. Funds shall only be used for the purposes of achieving the club's stated aims and for the clear benefit of enrolled RMIT students.
- 2.3. Where a club seeks support to participate in an activity or event in conjunction with a body or student club not affiliated to RUSU, the Club must disclose this in the application process and outline the arrangement, including distribution of costs amongst participating bodies and expected attendance by each body.
- 2.4. Additional funds may be raised by the club through other means including but not limited to membership fees, attendance fees to club events and activities, fundraising, cash sponsorship, gifts and other donations, sale of advertising, prizes, and grants from other bodies.
 - 2.4.1. Clubs are encouraged to charge a minimum one dollar ($1) annual membership fee for currently enrolled RMIT students, and a minimum five dollar ($5) annual membership fee for all others (associate members).
 - 2.4.2. All funds raised or otherwise received by the club must be documented and accounted for and shall be deposited directly to the RUSU nominated club bank account.
- 2.5. Funds received from RUSU shall be deposited by RUSU directly to the RUSU nominated club bank account.

2.5.1. RUSU nominated club bank accounts shall only be accessed and maintained by that club's executive, and only for the purposes of achieving the club's stated aims and for the clear benefit of enrolled RMIT students.

3. Annual Administration Grant

- 3.1. Upon completion of annual full affiliation, each club shall be allocated a fixed rate Annual Administration Grant of:
 - 3.1.1. Five hundred dollars ($500) for large clubs;
 - 3.1.2. Two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for small clubs.
- 3.2. The purpose of the Annual Administration Grant shall be to cover the cost of that club's fixed operational costs and administration.
- 3.3. Any spending of the Annual Administration Grant must be accounted for in the club's annual financial report.

4. Annual Programme Subsidy

- 4.1. Clubs shall be eligible for an Annual Programme Subsidy of up to:
 - 4.1.1. Seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750) per affiliation period for large clubs;
 - 4.1.2. Five hundred dollars ($500) per affiliation period for small clubs.
- 4.2. The purpose of the Annual Programme Subsidy shall be to subsidise the costs of student participation in club activities and events, and the costs of supplies, equipment or services required for club activities and events, excluding costs provided for by the Annual Administration.
 - 4.2.1. Clubs are required to prepare and submit to RUSU an Annual Programme of planned activities and events that is approved by a quorate general meeting of the club. Only costs incurred as a result of the club's Annual Programme shall be subsidised and no subsidy shall be for more than seventy-five-per-cent (75%) of costs incurred, as per receipts lodged with RUSU.
 - 4.2.2. All receipts shall be lodged together and within a reasonable time after the activity or event and all such receipts must be clearly labelled to identify the club, the cost, and the amount.
 - 4.2.3. Subsidies shall be paid by way of reimbursement after purchase.
- 4.3. All subsidised costs must be only for the purposes of achieving the club's stated aims and for the clear benefit of enrolled RMIT students.
- 4.4. Annual Programme Subsidy applications must be lodged with RUSU within a reasonable timeframe (as determined by RUSU) of the activity or event and no later than the 30th of November each year, unless prior arrangement has been made with the Clubs and Societies Officer.
 - 4.4.1. Applications must include minutes of a quorate club meeting approving the Annual Programme and a complete budget of related costs and funding

5. Special Funding Grants

- 5.1. Clubs may be able to apply for additional support in the form of Special Funding Grants of up to:
 - 5.1.1. Two thousand dollars ($2,000) per annum for small clubs or large clubs.
- 5.2. The purpose of Special Funding Grants shall be:
 - 5.2.1. For stimulus purposes; or
 - 5.2.2. To support the cost of special activities or events, excluding costs provided for by the Annual Administration Grant or Annual Programme Subsidy; or 5.2.3. To support costs where the governing body identifies a particular club initiative as being of particular benefit to the student community and pursuant to RUSU's aims and objectives.

5.3. Special Funding Grant applications must be lodged with RUSU at least eight (8) weeks prior to the event or activity, and must include minutes of a quorate club meeting approving the event or activity and a complete budget of related costs and funding.

5.3.1. This deadline may be reduced at the discretion of the governing body in extraordinary circumstances.

5.4. Special Funding Grant applications will be considered for approval by the governing body.

5.5. Any transaction of Special Funding Grant funds will be directly between RUSU and the supplier, not the club.

6. Special Incentive Grants

6.1. The governing body may at its discretion decide to provide incentive based grants to clubs for participation in RUSU endorsed activities or events.
