Proposed REGULATION Changes

Student Union Council Meeting 11 June 2025 at 6pm

The following are the proposed changes to the RUSU Regulations, which will be considered at the Student Union Council Meeting on 11 June 2025

Background

The 11 June SUC is considering proposing changes to the Election regulations:

Several updates are proposed to the election regulations including:

- requirements about advertising of campaign exclusion zones
- more detail around the use of social media in campaigning
- changes to the on-campus campaigning period
- expanding the clause regarding RO powers and non-student involvement in elections
- rewording clauses to be clear that the prohibition of the use of club emails, resources and endorsing of candidates/teams extends to RUSU and RMIT clubs and informal clubs and collectives using the name 'RMIT' or 'RUSU' in their title.

The proposed changes are all included in the Summary of Regulation Changes – Elections on the RUSU website.

Proposed Regulation Change

The following motions will be put to SUC on 11 June 2025

MOTION:

That the SUC approves the proposal to amend the RMIT University Student Union Incorporated Regulations (updated 25 September 2024) section: Elections, as outlined in the Notice of Regulation Change and Summary of Regulation Changes posted on the RUSU website and circulated to SUC members with the SUC Agenda.
