RUSU CLUBS

Important Information

You must fill out an Event Risk Management Assessment (ERMA) form and receive approval for ALL Club events.

Always use your RMIT student email when submitting a room booking.

However, always make it clear that the booking is for an official RMIT Club (and what Club it is).

These are the minimum deadlines for most non-academic venues on-campus.

For small/medium simple events, submit bookings at least 2 weeks in advance

For large/complicated events, submit bookings at least 4 weeks in advance, some large venues require a walkthrough at least 2 weeks in advance of the event.

Only your Clubs 'designated room bookers' can book on campus spaces.

If you do not know who your designated bookers are or want to change them reach out to your Clubs Officer.

Always aim to book further in advance in case your venue is unavailable or there are changes/complications with your event.

Whilst on campus venues are generally free to book for official RMIT Clubs, there may be additional staffing costs for security, cleaning or AV support where required.

If the venue decides a Club did not properly clean up after an event or if there is damage that requires repairs, the Club will be charged for these additional costs.

Don't promote your event/activity location until the venue is confirmed!

For RMIT Venues spaces use the Online Booking Module

See this guide on how to use the online booking module

If you have questions about these venues or an issue with your booking, email venues@rmit.edu.au

Garden Building Tip:

If you want to use the outdoor Level 7 BBQ area, ALWAYS also book inside Level 6 (in case of bad weather)

The 'function' spaces in Building 80 offer various options. Note there is no weather protection on the rooftop. Levels 4 and 7 function spaces are good alternatives.

Clubs do not have an RMIT Cost Centre.
You can just put down the Clubs name and use an executive's details for invoicing (if needed).

Contact your Clubs Officer if there are issues with this.
